

2024 Orange County School Bond Referendum

For the 2024 general election, Orange County residents will vote on a $300 million bond to fund school renovations and improvements.

Key facts you need to know

Fact:

If approved, the bonds will fund $300 million of the nearly $1 billion priority facility improvements for Orange County Schools and Chapel Hill Carrboro City Schools over the next 15 years.

Fact:

The projected cost of the bonds is $34.10 per $100,000 of assessed property value.

Fact:

If bonds are not approved, the county will rely on traditional borrowing methods, limiting school facility improvements.
